

#YCELEBRATES

YWCA Netherlands celebrates her 100th anniversary and you're invited to celebrate with us!

Due to the COVID-19 measures, we planned our celebration to next year (more information will follow). For this year's celebration, we are hosting webinars.

Tuesday 10 November 2020, 20:00 CET Senior TEDx Speaker Coach Barbara Rogoski :

Virtual (ZOOM) workshop on Executive Presence

Executive Presence is something every woman can learn about, no matter what business or position you are in . You don't want to miss this!

In this virtual workshop, executive speaker coach and storytelling expert Barbara Rogoski, will share with you what executive presence is and how you can develop your own. You will learn about how to introduce yourself confidently to show your VALUE in meetings and command respect. Barbara will also share her insights into how women can unconsciously sabotage themselves through their verbal and non-verbal communication. You will leave this session with structure and tools to develop your executive presence at every milestone of your career.

About Barbara Rogoski

Barbara is an American executive speaker coach and strategic storytelling consultant for Fortune 500 companies worldwide. Her focus is to help corporate executives to tell their story with confidence, clarity and impact. She empowers women to believe in their own value, strength and message to share. Speaking in public is one of the top three fears people have. Barbara offers presentations and coaching to help women understand the ego issues behind these fears, tame them and present with power and grace. Barbara is also a published author of Boring to Brilliant, A Reference Guide for Speakers, professional speakers and mentors. She has coached more than 100 TEDx speakers at more than 20 TEDx events, including TEDx Amsterdam Women. She especially enjoys empowering women to step up and speak up in all stages of their careers and in life.

Barbara is a visionary, humanitarian and role model for young women!
